

BOYS NIGHT at THE TEMPERAMENTALS
New World Stages, 340 W 50 St (bet 8th and 9th)
THURSDAY MARCH 4 at 8pm
Only $29 for the show plus a pre-theatre reception!

Purchase a $29.00 (regularly $65) ticket to 8pm performance of The Temperamentals on Thurs Mar 4 and receive a free cocktail at a pre-show (7pm) Boys Night reception in the Time Out Lounge at New World Stages. This is a perfect opportunity to see the show and mingle with fellow theatre-goers. We will invite the cast to attend the reception, and you never know who will show up!

Critics hail The Temperamentals as intelligent, political, witty, moving, wise, and most importantly, entertaining. It tells the story of a group of courageous men who joined together to build the Mattachine Society, the first gay rights organization in the United States. The play features the intimate and complex relationship between Harry Hay and young fashion designer Rudi Gernreich, set against the backdrop of 1950's Hollywood and the McCarthy era.

Thomas Jay Ryan (recently on Broadway "In The Next Room") portrays Harry Hay. Michael Urie (from TV's "Ugly Betty") is Rudi Gernreich. Arnie Burton (an original cast member of Broadway's "39 Steps") joins the cast in multiple roles. Rounding out the cast of five multiple talented actors are Matthew Schneck, and Sam Breslin Wright.

SPECIAL OFFER: $29 (reg. $65) for Thurs March 4 at 8pm
